Most Gracious Sir,

AUG 1992

Looking upon you as the only resort where I may receive justice, I approach your honour with my humble prayers.

I am the widow of late Syed Asadulla Saheb, Daroga of Jumma Musjid, Mysore who died just about two months ago. This post of Daroga was a hereditary, which tradition has been enjoyed by our family for over 80 years. Our Benign Government has laid down that such posts which occur here as well as in the Gumbaz Department should first be offered to them who are the heirs or claimants. Likewise, on the death of my husband, I tendered my application praying the post to be offered to my son-in-law Khaja Mohiaddin as my husband has left no male issue and that it is my son-in-law who has been in all taking care of me.

I have just been given to understand, Sir, that in spite of my claims and representations, this post has been offered to some other man. You, Sir, can well comprehend the depth of grievous shock I have felt when my heart is already sustained by the death of my husband.

Having no other solace, I come to you, Sir, and beseech your honour would graciously pleased to consider my case and lift me from the thores of distress I am throwing in thereby, I beg you would generously confer the boon of the post of Daroga to my son-in-law Khaja Mohiaddin, for which act of charity I shall be saved from all the misery we are now suffering from.

I beg to remain,
Most Gracious Sir,
Your ever devoted servant,

P.T.O.
